PARALYMPIC COMPETITION FORMAT

The cycling track competition at the Tokyo 2020 Paralympic Games features three medal events: individual time trial, individual pursuit and team sprint. These track events are divided into two divisions: C division for athletes with a physical impairment who use a two-wheeled bicycle, and B division for athletes with a visual impairment in which tandem bicycles are used.

Athletes in the C division are divided into different classes (C1 to C5) depending on the severity of their impairment. Visually impaired B division cyclists compete with a sighted rider, known as the "pilot", sitting at the front of the bike.

Events

Time trial

In the six time trial events, riders compete one at a time, alone against the clock. The rider recording the fastest time is the winner. Intermediate times are shown every 250m and at the finish. The B division and men's C division are contested over 1km, and the women's C division over 500m.

Individual pursuit

The 10 pursuit races are contested with two athletes on the track at the same time, starting on opposite sides. The riders will be paired in reverse order based on rankings after the entries for the qualification phase. (Note: pairing of athletes with similar disabilities during the qualification phase will take precedence in order not to penalise or favour particular athletes.)

Intermediate times are shown every 125m and at the finish. The men's B division and men's C4-5 sport classes are contested over 4km, and the others over 3km. The riders with the two fastest times will race for the gold medal, while the riders ranked third and fourth in the qualifying races will ride against each other for the bronze.

Team sprint

This event consists of two stages. The first is a qualifying round cycled over three laps by mixed teams of three riders. Each rider in a team leads for a lap and peels away to allow the rest of the team to sprint for the finish line. Each rider is allocated points according to their gender and impairment, with teams allowed a maximum of 10 points.

The qualifying round is conducted with one team on the track competing alone to record a time for the seeding that determines which teams will contest the finals. The two fastest teams after the qualifying round will race for the gold medal, and the two teams ranked third and fourth will ride for the bronze. Other teams will be ranked based on their times in the qualifying round.

Competition rules

The para-cycling track competition will be held in accordance with the editions of the following documents in force at the time of the Games:

- The UCI Regulations (available at <https://www.uci.org/inside-uci/constitutions-regulations/regulations>)
- The IPC handbook (available at www.paralympic.org/the-ipc/handbook)

The UCI, working with the Tokyo 2020 competition management, will be responsible for the technical control and direction of the cycling track competition at the Tokyo 2020 Paralympic Games.

Reclassified Riders

Riders who are classified to be observed in competition, and subsequently reclassified may only be moved to the results of the new class if their nation still has a free place. This is subject to the rider having competed in the same session over the same distance. If there is no free place available for their Nation in the new class the rider will be recorded in their original class results as reclassified.

Due to the reclassification of a rider, if the nation now has more riders entered in a class than places available to them, they must decide for later events at this event which riders will now compete.
