Competition Format and Rules

Formato e regras da competição

As of WED 31 AUG 2016

Paralympic competition format

Individual events

For all individual epee, foil and sabre events at the Rio 2016 Paralympic Games, the competition format will be a pool phase followed by direct elimination.

Fencers are seeded into four pools based on their current position in the International Wheelchair and Amputee Sports Federation (IWAS) Wheelchair Fencing world ranking list. They compete against every other athlete in their pool before the top two athletes from each pool progress to the quarterfinals.

Fencers are seeded into quarterfinals according to their results in the pool phase. All direct elimination bouts are up to 15 hits in a maximum of nine minutes, divided into three periods of three minutes, with one minute's pause between any periods. As an exception, for sabre, the first period ends either at the expiry of the three minutes or when one of the fencers has scored eight hits.

Winners of each bout progress to the semifinal phase while losers are eliminated. The winners of each semifinal will progress to the gold medal bout while the losers will progress to the bronze medal bout.

Team events

Six teams contest each team event (women's epee and foil; men's epee and foil), which begin with a group phase before a direct elimination phase.

There are two pools of three teams in each event, with seedings based on their current position in the International Wheelchair and Amputee Sports Federation (IWAS) Wheelchair Fencing world rankings, and each team fences every other team in their group

Teams are comprised of three fencers (without a substitute fencer).

Each fencer will fight every athlete in the opposing team, for a total of nine bouts per match. Each bout lasts until a multiple of five points has been scored for the total score, or after three minutes is reached (whichever comes first). Each subsequent bout builds on the score of the previous bout and the team match is finished either after 45 points are scored or after the last period (whichever comes first).

The top two teams in each pool progress to the semifinals. The team ranked first in pool A will fence the team ranked second in pool B. The team ranked second in pool A will fence against the team ranked first in pool B.

The teams ranked third in each pool will fence for fifth/sixth place.

The winners of each semifinal will progress to the gold medal bout, while the losers will contest the bronze medal match.

Sport rules and procedures

The wheelchair fencing competition will be held in accordance with the editions of the following documents that are in force at the time of Rio 2016:

- IWAS wheelchair fencing rules for competition (www.iwasf.com/iwasf/index.cfm/sports/iwas-wheelchair-fencing/rules-documents1/)
- The IPC handbook (www.paralympic.org/the-ipc/handbook)

IWAS, working with Rio 2016 competition management, will be responsible for the technical control and direction of the wheelchair fencing competition at Rio 2016.

Changes since the London 2012 Paralympic Games

The competition format differs from London 2012 in the following ways:

- Competition format for individual events is slightly different with fencers progressing from the pool phase to quarterfinals for all events.
- Competition format for team events is different. It is now a pool phase followed by direct elimination rather than just direct elimination.
- There are now four team events (two for men and two for women) with six teams in each event. Each team will have three fencers without a substitute fencer.

Differences from the Olympic Games

The competition format differs from Olympic fencing in the following ways:

- Competition format is a round of pools followed by direct elimination rather than direct elimination in the Olympic Games.
- Team events in Paralympic Games do not have a substitute fencer.

Item: 1

Schedule Change.

Summary:

Men's Individual Sabre Quarterfinals Category A have been Rescheduled to 12:45.

Details:

Due to the damage trough the fire one piste cannot be used today.

For the Quarterfinals cat.A and cat.B that were scheduled at the same time we now have to fence in two rounds instead of one. This is the reason why Quarterfinals Category A will start at 12:45 instead of 12:25.
