To: Ms. Zhang Haidi, President
Chinese Paralympic Committee

13 March 2022

Dear Ms. Zhang Haidi,

The Russian Paralympic Committee warmly congratulates the Chinese Paralympic team on their successful performance at the Beijing 2022 Paralympic Winter Games. You performed as a strong, united team, which resulting a record number of medals. This excellent result allowed you to become absolute leaders in the overall medal standings. I am confident that the victorious performance of the Chinese Paralympians at the Games will inspire millions of people with disabilities to practice sports.

And of course, I would like to underline the highest level of organization of the Paralympic Winter Games. Your unique experience in the preparing of such high-level competitions, commitment to great traditions and self-sacrifice will be a significant contribution to the development of the Paralympic sports movement worldwide.

I wish the Chinese athletes new successful starts and sport achievements.

As always, we look forward to the continuing and strengthening of cooperation between the RPC and the Chinese Paralympic Committee, and between Chinese and Russian Paralympic athletes.
